Dear members

Selection Events for New Zealand Teams and Squads 2011-2012

This memo confirms events in the 2011/2012 season that the National Selectors have identified as selection events for the purposes of selecting New Zealand teams and squads including the 2012/2013 World Championships and Development Squads and the 2012 New Zealand World Championships Team.

The full Selection Regulations and Applications for Selection for specific teams and squads will be available online when each application process opens.

Please note that the Whangamata Surf Sports Carnival on Saturday 17 December is a new selection event that replaces the High Performance Trial held in December last year. A revised programme for this event will be released closer to the event date.

Selectors will use the following criteria and selection events to select the 2012/2013 World Championships and Development Squads.

1. Selection events;

The performance and results of members, both individually and as part of a team, at the following events (Selectors will be in attendance):

- a. State New Zealand Pool Championships, Hamilton, 28-30 October 2011
- b. Eastern Surf Sports Carnival, Whangamata, 17 December 2011
- c. Eastern Regional Championships (formerly called NRCs), Mount Maunganui, 28-29 January 2012
- d. Lion Foundation New Zealand Surf League, Mount Maunganui, 11-12 February 2012
- e. State New Zealand Surf Life Saving Championships, Gisborne, 15-18 March 2012

2. Selectors will also take into consideration:

- a. The performances and results of members competing in SLSNZ Regional Championships events in the 2011 – 2012 season (Selectors will be in attendance);
 - i. Central Regional Championships, Oakura, 15 January 2012
